

4.1 Assessment statements on overarching principles for all programmes

Principles to be included	Statements	Yes, No or Inadequate?	Comments	Actions
Inclusivity	The programme ensures equal access to quality services, information and education for all, without barriers or discrimination on the basis of age, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, race, ethnicity, disability, practices, socio-economic background, HIV status or any other characteristic.
Sex-positivity	The programme's objectives reflect a positive approach to sex and respect for other people's sexual preferences.			